Numb. 9576.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 20, to Saturday April 24, 1756.

AT the Court at St. James's the 30th Day of March 1756,

PRESENT,

The Lords of His Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council.

WHereas the Time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the 28th of February last, for paying the respective Bounties therein mentioned, to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, who should voluntarily enter themselves in His Majesty's Royal Navy; And likewise for paying the Rewards to Persons discovering Seamen who should conceal themselves, will expire upon the 31st Day of this Instant March.— And whereas it is judged expedient for His Majesty's Service, That the Bounties and Rewards thereby given should be continued to be paid for some Time longer: — It is thereupon this Day Ordered in Council, that the Bounties of Three Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years; and of Thirty Shillings for every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, be continued to be paid to such Seamen and Landmen respectively, who shall, on or before the 30th Day of April next, enter themselves in the Royal Navy, in the Manner directed by His Majesty's Proclamation of the 11th Day of November last. And likewise that the Rewards of Two Pounds for every Able, and Twenty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, be continued to be paid to any Persons who shall, on or before the said 30th Day of April next, discover any Seaman or Seamen, who shall conceal themselves, so as such Seaman or Seamen be taken for His Majesty's Service. Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly. W. Sharpe.

War-Office, April 15, 1756.

WHereas a Power is given to His Majesty in the Act for the speedy and effectual Recruiting of His Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, that when His Majesty shall be satisfied by the Returns of the Commissioners or otherwise, that a sufficient Number of Recruits in the Whole shall be raised for His present Service, He may be graciously pleased to suspend, or stop the further Execution of that Act, by Proclamation, or Order in Council, or other publick Notice in the London Gazette: And whereas the great Zeal of the Nobility and Gentry for His Majesty's Service hath almost compleated the Corps for which Impressed Men were intended, I am commanded by the King to give this publick Notice in the London Gazette, that His Majesty is graciously pleased to suspend and stop the further Execution of the said Act for the speedy and effectual Recruiting His Majesty's Land Forces and Marines, from and after the first Day of May next, till further Notice. BARRINGTON.

St. James's, April 22.

The following Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, having been transmitted by the Reverend Dr. Law, Vice Chancellor, to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, Chancellor of the University, was by him presented to His Majesty: His Majesty was pleased to receive it very graciously, and to direct the Duke of Newcastle to assure the University of the Continuance of His Protection and Favour.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of your University of Cambridge, with Hearts

Hearts full of Gratitude for your Majeſty's conſtant and unwearied Endeavours to preſerve the Rights of your Imperial Crown, and to promote the Happineſs of your People, beg Leave, at this critical Juncture, to renew our ſincere and ſolemn Aſſurances of inviolable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Illuſtrious Houſe.

Zeal for our Holy Religion, a deep Senſe of our Duty, and a full Conviction of the ineſtimable Bleſſings long enjoyed under your Majeſty's mild and gracious Government, concur to inſpire us with Abhorrence of the preſent unjuſt Attempt to ſhake the Stability of your Throne; the ſame Conſiderations will ever powerfully engage us to join with Unanimity in the moſt vigorous and effectual Meaſures for its Support, and faithfully inſtil the ſame Senſe of our common Duty and Intereſt into all thoſe that are committed to our Care.

To the more general Motives of Affection and Loyalty we ought to add your Majeſty's continued Favour and repeated Bounty to your Univerſity: Theſe conſtantly excite in us the moſt grateful Sentiments, and juſtly demand our public and moſt dutiful Acknowledgements.

May the Great God of Hoſts, in this and all other Times of Difficulty and Danger, guard your moſt Sacred Perſon, and give Succeſs to your righteous Cauſe; protect your Fleets and Armies in the Day of Battle, and diſappoint the Enterprizes of thoſe who delight in War: May he prolong that Life which is ſo dear to a happy and obedient People; infuſe your Royal Virtues into the ſeveral Branches of your auguſt Houſe, and thence raiſe a Succeſſion of wiſe and upright Princes, who, with equal Glory and Felicity, ſhall ſway the Scepter of theſe Kingdoms to all future Generations.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Northumberland, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Matthew White, Baronet: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Northumberland.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave, at this critical and alarming Conjuncture, to approach the Throne, to aſſure your Majeſty of our ſteady and unalterable Fidelity and Affection to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Indignation and Reſentment at the inſolent Menaces of a haughty and perfidious Enemy, to diſturb, by an hoſtile Invaſion, the Happineſs which theſe Kingdoms enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt wiſe, mild, and gracious Government; and permit us in this publick Manner to declare, that in Caſe your Majeſty ſhould think fit to call forth our Loyalty into Action, your Majeſty ſhall ever find us ready and determined, at the Hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, reſolutely to defend your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and moſt Illuſtrious Family, and the Religion, Laws, and Liberty of theſe Kingdoms, againſt all your Enemies.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Walter Blacket, Bart. and Matthew Ridley, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff and Common Council of the Town and County of the Town of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, with our ſincereſt Thanks for your Majeſty's tender and paternal Regard for the Safety of your People, by the Encreaſe of your Forces for the Protection of theſe Kingdoms from the Invaſion with which they are now threatned.

Fully aſſured of the Juſtice of the Meaſures taken by your Majeſty, in the neceſſary Defence of the undoubted Rights and Poſſeſſions of your Crown—Truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's mild and auſpicious Government, the Continuance of which, as well as of every other Thing that can be dear and valuable to a free People, depends on preſerving the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Illuſtrious Houſe.— And warmed with that Reſentment and Indignation, which the Inſolence and Perfidiouſneſs of the French muſt raiſe in every honeſt Britiſh Breaſt, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our unfeigned Zeal and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and that no Means in our Power ſhall remain unexerted, which may tend to defeat and fruſtrate any Attempts tempts which may be made againſt the Safety of the one, or the Tranquility of the other.

May the Almighty crown your Majeſty's Arms with Victory, and your Councils with Succeſs! May he protect your Royal Perſon from all Perils and Dangers, and grant you long to reign over a grateful, free and happy People!

Given under our Common Seal the 6th Day of April, 1756.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity Houſe in the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Walter Blacket, Bart. and Matthew Ridley, Eſq; : Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Maſter, Pilots and Seamen of the Trinity Houſe in the Town and County of Newcaſtle upon Tyne.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that as it is with the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction we conſider the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your moſt gracious and excellent Government, by which our Rights, Liberties and Privileges are preſerved and eſtabliſhed; ſo we cannot, without the utmoſt Deteſtation, hear of the perfidious Attempts and barbarous Cruelties of the French in your American Colonies, and their audacious and wicked Deſigns of invading ſome Parts of your Majeſty's Kingdoms; but the happy Experience we have had of your great Wiſdom, the Prudence and Juſtice of the Meaſures you have taken, and the Goodneſs of your Cauſe, give us juſt Grounds to hope, that, with the Bleſſing of the Almighty, you will fruſtrate and defeat their unjuſt and pernicious Attempts.

And we do humbly offer your Majeſty our ſincereſt Thanks for your paternal Care and Protection of your People; and do aſſure your Majeſty that we will, with true Britiſh Zeal, defend your Sacred Perſon and Government againſt theſe Invaders and Diſturbers of the Peace and Safety of your Kingdoms.

And that our hearty and ſincere Prayers are, that your Majeſty may long and happily reign over us, and that theſe Kingdoms may always flouriſh and enjoy their preſent happy Conſtitution both in Church and State, under the Government of your Majeſty and your lateſt Poſterity.

In Teſtimony whereof we have cauſed our Common Seal to be affixed this Ninth Day of April, 1756.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir John Ligonier, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty having been graciouſly pleaſed to acquaint your two Houſes of Parliament, that a Deſign hath been formed by the French Court, to make an hoſtile Invaſion upon Great Britain or Ireland; we your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, in Common Council aſſembled, do beg Leave to expreſs our Abhorrence and Deteſtation of ſo unjuſt and deſperate an Enterprize; projected in Revenge for your Majeſty's generous and ſteady Conduct in maintaining the juſt Rights and Poſſeſſions of your Crown and Subjects in North America.

With the moſt grateful Acknowledgements and unfeigned Loyalty, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our Reſolution to hazard our Lives and Fortunes in the Defence of your Majeſty, and the Religious and Civil Rights of your Subjects; and, upon every Occaſion, we ſhall be ready to give the moſt evident Proofs of all the Zeal which the moſt dutiful Subjects can ſhew to the beſt of Princes.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have ſet our Common Seal, the ſeventeenth Day of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty ſix.

The Corporation of Bath, to ſhew their Zeal upon this Occaſion, do give a Guinea for every Man that will voluntarily enter into Colonel Arabin's Regiment of Foot.

And Ralph Allen, Eſq; alſo gives a Guinea for the like Purpoſe.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Common Council of the Town of Lancaſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Common Council

Council of the Town of Lancaſter in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, and Common Council of the Town of Lancaſter, moſt humbly implore your Majeſty's Pardon for taking off your Royal Attention at this Time from Affairs of the higheſt Importance, when your Majeſty's Kingdoms are threatned with an Invaſion by the avow'd Enemies of the Liberties of Mankind, as well as your Majeſty.

But being greatly alarm'd for the Safety of your Majeſty's Perſon, and fired with Indignation at the Inſults offer'd to your Majeſty for exerting that Power God has put into your Hands in maintaining the ſettled and acknowledged Rights of Great Britain in America, we cannot reſiſt the earneſt Deſire we have, at this critical Conjuncture, of aſſuring your Majeſty, in the moſt ſolemn Manner, of our inviolable Attachment and Fidelity to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, and our determined Reſolution to ſupport and defend both at the Hazard of all that is dear to us.

Conſcious of the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign, we pray to Heaven for a long Continuance of that Life on which ſo much depends; and poſſeſſing in the happieſt Degree our Civil and Religious Liberties, we reſt ſecure they will be convey'd down to lateſt Poſterity under the Influence of Princes of your illuſtrious Family, governing according to thoſe Maxims which have ſo juſtly acquired your Majeſty the Hearts of your People.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE the Magiſtrates and Council of the City of Edinburgh, humbly beg Leave to join with all your Majeſty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, in teſtifying our Abhorrence of the Intentions of the Court of France, to make an Invaſion upon Great Britain or Ireland, an Enterpriſe formed in Deſpair and Rage, on Account of your Majeſty's having reſented the Encroachments, Depredations and Murders committed by the French in North America.

It is now above Forty Years ſince their Monarchy was preſerved by the Indulgence ſhew'd them in the Reign of her late Majeſty Queen Anne; the Treaty of Utrecht, which then ſav'd them from Ruin, has been ever ſince their conſtant Object for the Violation of publick Faith.

They lately formed a Scheme to invade your Majeſty's Foreign Dominions, merely on Account of your Royal Protection of the Rights of Great Britain, which your Majeſty's wiſe and prudent Meaſures has rendered Abortive; and we cannot now omit expreſſing our great Satisfaction, in the immediate Aſſiſtance we ſhall have from thoſe very Territories, which the common Enemy had mark'd out for Deſtruction: This we owe to your Majeſty's gracious Compliance with the Deſires of the two Houſes of Parliament.

May the Almighty long preſerve your Sacred Majeſty, the Protector of your Subjects, and Defender of the Rights of Great Britain; and may your Subjects, with Gratitude, be ever ſenſible of the Happineſs they have enjoy'd, and cannot fail to be bleſs'd with, during your Majeſty's Reign.

Edinburgh, April 15, 1756.

Sign'd in Preſence, and by Order of the Council.

Alex. Grant, Preſes.
